

Besler Consulting is pleased to announce its new partnership and association with Prosperity America, inc. The two companies have entered into a co-owned enterprise called American Healthcare Outsourcing LLC (AHOA).

This new venture creates additional flexibility in the service offerings of both companies allowing them to react to the many unique demands within the healthcare industry. This new operation draws on the expertise of industry leaders that bring exceptional depth and resources to the Company. The creation of AHOA allows BESLER Consulting to expand its range of offerings to include comprehensive solutions for self pay receivables concerns.

We invite you to meet Fred Landrum, the President of AHOA, at the BESLER HFMA ANI Booth 900

AHOA is a business process and back office support firm that offers hospitals and providers a full suite of services designed to combat the rising impact of self-pay receivables.
